Tax Graduates

Tax work is challenging and intellectually stimulating and assistance in tax matters is needed in all phases of company's development – expanding or shrinking operations, transforming or restructuring the business model, ensuring tax compliance of its operations. This means you're involved in crucial times with clients and, as a member of KPMG's Tax team, you could be engaged in anything from supporting them on meeting the compliance requirements, to working on cross-border mergers and acquisitions.

Roles and responsibilities

- Support the work of a team within KPMG's tax department, performing different tax advisory and tax compliance projects
- Work with local and international clients and liaise with the authorities, as needed
- Develop skills and know-how towards Bulgarian and EU tax law
- Gain understanding of our tax service offerings and our approach to service delivery

Qualifications and required skills

To be successful in this role you need to:

- Be a recent university graduate specialized in Law, Finance, Accounting or Economics
- Have excellent communication skills in English and Bulgarian
- Be a team-player, able to work under tight deadlines
- Have a client-centric mindset and high performance culture

How work is rewarded at KPMG:

We offer successful candidates an attractive remuneration package combined with a well-rounded portfolio of additional benefits and professional training opportunities.
