

Are you a final-year bachelor student or a master student? Are you ready to get into the pilot seat for your future career? Are you eager to take off to an amazing challenge with us?

If so, then Case Study Challenge 2013 is the event for you!

We invite you to join us on April 19-20th for this year's edition of the Roland Berger Case Study Challenge, where we will test your team spirit, leadership potential and analytical skills.

In teams, you will compete against other motivated Romanian and Bulgarian students to solve a real business puzzle. You will have the chance to experience the everyday challenges and rewards of management consulting.

Those of you who will convince us that consultancy is the right fit for them will be offered the chance to join the Roland Berger Strategy Consultants team and complete a two-month internship in the company's Bucharest office.

Roland Berger will award 10 grants to cover transportation and accommodation costs for Romanian and Bulgarian students currently attending universities outside Bucharest.

True to the belief that it's character that creates impact, Roland Berger Strategy Consultants supports, recruits and develops young talents, fostering excellence worldwide, among professionals and students alike. We are the place where talent joins new heights. We know that excellence builds on hard work and competition. So take off to an amazing challenge with us: Case Study Challenge!
