

UNIVERSITY OF MILAN
DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS, BUSINESS AND STATISTICS

Milan, April 20, 2009

Dear colleague,

Please find enclosed some materials (a poster and a few copies of a leaflet) concerning the two-year master's program in Economics and Political Science (EPS). This program, entirely taught in English, is offered by the Faculty of Political Science of the University of Milano.

The EPS program is intended for top level international students. About forty students are expected to enroll each year. Admission is based on academic excellence. Applicants should have a bachelor's degree or equivalent; a strong interest and/or previous studies in economics, political science or related subjects; undergraduate or graduate training in mathematics and quantitative methods; a sound knowledge of spoken and written English.

EPS graduates will be ready to undertake a wide array of career paths in multinational companies, political institutions, public organizations, and other professions demanding high intellectual skills, robust technical competences and versatile knowledge. They will also be well prepared to engage in further academic research in top PhD programs in all fields of economics and political science.

I would appreciate if you could inform all interested graduates you are in touch with about the EPS program, circulating the enclosed materials among them. Detailed information about the admission requirements and procedures is also available online at the address:
