

MASTERS PROGRAMME: ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT OF THE PUBLIC SECTOR

---

Programme Director:

Assoc. professor Dr Alexander Nikolov – e-mail: alek\_nikolov@mail.bg

Programme objective

To produce highly qualified graduates who will be able to apply new forms, methods and means in the public sector management, to make economic analysis and to take economically justified decisions in the public sector.

Contents and structure

The programme duration is 3 semesters. The first two semesters the students take subjects from the curriculum. The third semester is for preparation of the Masters thesis

Career prospects

The programme graduates can work as government officers at a national level, in the regional and local administration, as chief secretaries in ministries, in municipalities, as mayors, directors and officers in non-profit organizations, officers in public organizations, administrative directors in companies, etc.