

DILYANA SLAVOVA

She graduated political science at Sofia University.

She has worked in the Bulgarian Chamber of Commerce and Industry and the non-governmental sector, taking an active part in negotiating post factum with the European Commission a derogation period for the dairy industry after Bulgaria's accession to the European Union.

Dilyana Slavova has been a member of the European Economic and Social Committee in Brussels for 10 years, the last five of which President of the External Relations Section. She has chaired the Committee's work on European Union external relations, trade, development and enlargement. She has worked actively with the European External Action Service, DG Trade, DG NEAR, DG DEVCO.

She has worked on EU trade policy and monitoring of the EU free trade agreements. She has organized missions and forums with representatives of civil society in the Western Balkans, the Eastern Partners, Euromed, Africa, Canada, USA, Central America, Russia, China.

Currently she is advisor on foreign policy of the President of the Republic of Bulgaria.